HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO FEBRUARY 9.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The House resumed the consideration of the Covode-Foster contested election case. After a discussion of the case, the House voted to admit Covode, 123 to 80, a strict party vote. Covode then took the oath of office.

Lawrence, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported a bill to enforce the amendments to the Constitution, adopted.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Legislative Appropriation bill. Dawes moved to strike out the item for a reporter for the Congressional Globe, on the ground that its publication will be abolished after this session. After a discussion the motion was rejected and the Committee rose.

Banks offered a resolution calling on the President for information as to the recent murder of American citizens in Havana, adopted. The House then adjourned.

In the Senate, a resolution was adopted calling for information relative to the action of any department in regard to the Central branch of the Southern Pacific Railroad for bonds or lands in aid of that road.

Conkling, from the Committee on Revision of the Laws, reported with amendments the House bill for a revision and consolidation of the Statutes of the United States. It authorizes the President to appoint three Commissioners to finish the work in three years.

Howard, from the Committee on Territories, reported a bill to provide for the payment of the expenses incurred by the Territory of Montana in the suppression of the Indian hostilities.

Wilson introduced a bill to increase the number of Judges in the Supreme Court and Circuit Court of the United States, and to establish the boundaries of judicial districts. It provides for 11 Circuit Judges and ten Supreme Judges.

The greater portion of the morning hour was consumed by Morton in speaking upon the neutral relations of the United States. Morton said Spain had lately fitted out in the harbor of New York thirty gunboats and publicly enlisted crews in the streets of that city, for the avowed purpose of subjugating the people of Cuba to her rule, the most despotic and inhuman known to modern times. We had knowingly furnished ships and sailors to put down the effort of a neighboring people with whom we were on the most friendly terms, and enjoyed the most intimate commercial relation, who are struggling to free themselves from a military despotism of a cruel and effete nation, separated from them by a broad ocean. He cited various authorities upon international law in support of his position. Viewing the Cuban Question from the American standpoint, he said Cuba was as entirely included in the Monroe doctrine as though she formed a part of the main land. The possession of Cuba by Spain will be hostile to our policy, its retention in the light of sufferance and toleration rather than because of the existence of a valid title.

Morton's bill, together with the House bill relative to our neutral relations, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Trumbull, from the Judicial Committee, presented a substitute for the House bill to admit Mississippi. The substitute declares that without preamble or condition, the State of Mississippi is entitled to representation. (Line opened here for a minute or two—will get it filled out to-morrow. OPERATOR.)

The bill requires that the Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States must be residents of their respective circuits.

The census bill was taken up, and after discussion Conkling, as a test of the sense of the Senate upon the question, moved to lay the House bill on the table; agreed to; ayes 46, noes 9. The noes were Cragin, Morrill of New Hampshire, Nye, Patterson, Pratt, Sherman, Sumner, Warren and Wilson.

Chandler introduced a bill of last session to promote commerce between the States, etc. It authorizes the construction of a first class railroad between New York and Washington—capital, ten millions. It also provides for a railroad and telegraph from Washington to Pittsburg and Cincinnati.

The Senate then adjourned.

EASTERN NEWS BY MAIL.

WASHINGTON SKETCHES—SENATORS YATES, CARPENTER, SAULSBURY, AND HOWE.

[Washington (Jan. 23) Cor. New York Tribune.]

Everybody was glad to see Richard Yates, of Illinois, a man of singularly generous and affectionate nature, with the frank manner of a boy, and the smile of a woman. During the war, I was a witness to what he did for the soldiers of his great State—to what he felt for the widows and orphans of soldiers. If I remember these things so well, how must they whom he helped and comforted remember them. It is impossible for him to pass beyond the atmosphere of their blessings, the reach of their prayers.

Mr. Carpenter and Mr. Saulsbury, both large, strong men, have both a peculiarly restless manner, and walk pertinaciously and semi-circularly, with their hands in their pockets. Mr. Carpenter, with his coat buttoned tightly about him, as though holding himself in with considerably difficulty—Mr. Saulsbury occasionally growling out scornful or humorous remarks on Republican legislation. The power in both these gentlemen seems in an active state of fermentation. Indeed, there is in these three Senators, Yates, Carpenter and Saulsbury, ability, energy, and eloquence enough unused and unhusbanded—not "tied up in bundles, but lying about loose"—to run a respectable legislature.

In strong contrast to Mr. Carpenter is Wisconsin's other Senator, quiet and easy, untimely winter on his head, but perpetual summer in his face. Always faithful and tireless in duty is Mr. Howe, but talking little and that temperately and to the point, as though the charge of his noble State had been, "O, Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding vain and profane babblings."

THE TEXAS ELECTION—THE RESULT OFFICIALLY DECLARED BY GENERAL REYNOLDS.

HEADQUARTERS FIFTH MILITARY DISTRICT, STATE OF TEXAS, AUSTIN, Jan. 11, 1870.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 5.—In compliance with the third section of the act of Congress of April 10, and the proclamation of the President, of July 15, 1869, an election was held in the State of Texas, on the 30th of November, 1st, 2d and 3d of December, 1869. The result of said election, excepting local officers, is hereby announced as follows:

VOTE ON THE CONSTITUTION.

Number of votes "For"	72,366
Number of votes "Against"	4,928
Majority for Constitution	67,438

The Constitution for the State of Texas adopted by the Convention which assembled at Austin on the 15th of June, 1868, in compliance with the Reconstruction laws of Congress, has therefore been "ratified."

The following named persons having received a plurality of the votes cast, are declared elected to the position designated, viz:

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.

First District—G. W. Whitmore.
Second District—J. C. Connor.
Third District—W. T. Clarke.
Fourth District—E. Degener.

STATE OFFICERS.

Governor—Edmund J. Davis.
Lieutenant Governor—J. W. Flanagan.
Controler—A. Bledsoe.
Treasurer—G. W. Honey.
Land Office Commissioner—Jacob Keuchler.

[Here follows a list of the members of the Senate and of the House of Representatives.]

II. In compliance with the fifth section of act of Congress approved April 10, 1869, the Legislature of the State of Texas, will assemble at the State Capitol, Austin, Texas, on Tuesday, the 8th day of February next, at 12 o'clock M.

An official copy of this order will be considered a certificate of election.

By command of
Brevet Major General J. J. REYNOLDS.
H. CLAY WOOD, Assistant Adjutant General.

EMIGRATION OF CHINESE TO THE PACIFIC COAST—REGULATIONS FOR THE BUSINESS—IMPORTANT ORDER OF THE FOREIGN BOARD AT PEKIN.

[From the N. Y. Times, Jan. 24.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The Department of State has received from the United States Consul at Amoy a copy of an important order from the Foreign Board at Pekin, which order had not been generally promulgated, but communicated to the Chinese Commissioners of Customs of the Treaty ports. The Consul expresses the opinion that under this order the lawful emigration of Chinese to our Pacific coast will be confined to Hong Kong, and it will be unprofitable in any other ports.

First—Non treaty power merchants are not permitted to open emigration agencies.

Second—Non treaty power ships are not permitted to carry coolie emigrants.

Third—Coolie emigrants are not permitted to proceed under contract to non treaty power countries.

Fourth—Only treaty power merchants can open emigration agencies, only treaty power ships can carry such emigrants, and it is only to treaty power countries such contract emigrants can proceed.

Fifth—The coolie traffic is prohibited at Macao.

The Commissioner of Customs is to co-operate with the Superintendent in seeing that the rules and regulations of each agency opened by the authority of the local or territorial officials are in accordance with the Convention of 1866, and is to act with the officers deputed by the local officials in ascertaining that each emigrant fully understands the contract under which proceeds, and that he goes abroad under contract of his own free will. The Commissioner is furthermore to sign and seal each contract in proof that the coolie understands its meaning, and accepts its terms; and he is also to take care that the ships employed to carry coolies are bona fide treaty power ships.

NOVA SCOTIA—PROPOSED ALTERATIONS OF TARIFF—INTERVIEWS WITH THE PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES—POLITICAL FEELING IN NOVA SCOTIA.

[From the New York Herald, January 24th.]

A gentleman connected with the local government of Nova Scotia, now staying in this city, has recently had interviews with the President and Vice President of the United States and also with Secretary Fish upon the state of political feeling in Nova Scotia and the desirability of the United States government by a conciliatory policy, winning over the Nova Scotians to more decided demonstrations of alliance, by which they may become in closer alliance with the United States government, and ultimately become independent of the Dominion influence. He urges that, as New Foundland is a farming and fishing country, it would be good policy on the part of the United States to reduce the duties on breadstuffs and dried fish. Canada is trying for this trade, and he urges that it is more desirable that the trade should be with the States than with Canada. Prince Edward Island is a large potato-growing country, as well as a large fish-producing country, and the same liberal policy would be extremely beneficial to this country. For Nova Scotia he urges a reduction of the rates on coal, which would be extremely beneficial, he has pointed out, to New England.

Both the President and the Vice President have promised that all these suggestions shall receive prompt attention, and if reduced to legislative enactments may be productive of beneficial consequences to this country and widen the line of separation between these provinces and the imperial government of Canada.

OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT UPON AN OLD MAN BY THE SUPERVISING ARCHITECT OF THE TREASURY.

The following letter and correspondence have been sent to the Hon. George W. McCrary, representative in Congress from the First district of Iowa:

On Thursday, January 13, between the hours of two and three o'clock, P. M., while I was standing at the west door of the Treasury Department as watchman, a person came to the door that I did not know. I asked him civilly if he was employed in the department. His reply was, "God d—n you, you don't know me?" I observed pleasantly to him that I did not. He thus said, "D—n you, I will let you know who I am," and gave me a hard push from him and passed by. I then stepped up to him and told him it was my duty to know who came in here after two o'clock—as the watchmen are strictly charged to do. He then said again, "God d—n you, you will know me, you are a damned fool!" and sprang upon me with both hands with all his might upon my breast and knocked me entirely over backwards flat upon the hard marble floor, which jarred me so much that it injured me severely, and I felt the hurt for several days afterwards and am likely to for some time. I got up as soon as I could and asked him for his name, which he would not give, but was informed by persons standing by that it was A. B. Mullett, Supervising Architect of the Treasury. I consider Mullett's conduct unprovoked and brutal, as the following persons standing by and witnessing the outrage will testify: Charles C. Boyd, messenger Bureau of Statistics; E. B. Elliott, clerk, room 10, third floor; J. Van Arsdale, messenger Register's office; John Robinson, messenger, Bureau of Statistics. PHILO BURR.

To Hon. George S. Boutwell, Secretary of the Treasury.—The writer of the foregoing is an old gentleman whom I know well and esteem highly. He is from my district in Iowa. His statement is entitled to credit, and, if true, Mr. Mullett is not in my judgment, fit to remain in government employ.

GEO. W. McCRARY,
First District Iowa.

Mr. Burr is a citizen of the town in which I live (Mount Pleasant, Iowa), and has sustained an unblemished reputation. The statements may be relied on. I write with my colleagues in demanding redress. JAS. HARLAN, U. S. Senate.

On the strength of Senator Harlan's and Representative McCrary's statements, I concur in the demand for redress.

WM. SMYTH,
Second District, Iowa.

I concur in the above.

CHARLES POMEROY,
Sixth District, Iowa.

Considering that an outrage has been committed upon an unoffending citizen of Iowa in the employment of the Government, I write with my colleagues in demanding that the matter be investigated and redress given.

WM. LOUGHRIDGE, Fourth Dist., Iowa.

The foregoing has been sent to the Secretary of the Treasury, and the probabilities are that Mr. Mullett will be dealt with as he deserves for brutally assaulting an old and highly respectable gentleman, seventy years of age, while in the faithful performance of his duty in endeavoring to enforce the regulations of the Department.

DEATH OF THE ACTOR, HENRY PLACIDE.

This well known and popular actor died at Babylon, L. I., on Sunday morning last. He was a native of Louisiana, and was well advanced in years. At an early age he adopted the profession of an actor and soon became distinguished for the able manner in which he represented the various characters he was cast in. Of late years he had settled down into "old men" parts, and was best known for his rendition of Grandfather Whitehead. The last time he played this part in New York was at the Winter Garden theater, when that place of amusement was under the management of Mr. Stuart, the occasion being a benefit for Mr. Blake, the veteran actor. His Sir Peter Teazle and Sir Anthony Absolute were also admirably acted characters. Mr. Placide performed professional engagements in all the towns and cities of the Union, and to the time of his death maintained the reputation of being one of the best of American actors. Personally he was a clever, genial gentleman, and his death will be deplored by numerous friends.

SUCCESSFUL CO-OPERATION—EMPLOYERS DIVIDING PROFITS WITH WORKMEN.

[From the New York Tribune.]

Messrs. A. S. Cameron & Co., who occupy extensive premises in Twenty-third street, formerly known as the New York Steam Engine Works, and who are the largest constructors of steam pumps in this country, have at present 150 men employed upon this specialty, and notwithstanding the dullness of trade, are busier than they have ever been before. The great feature of this establishment is to approximation to the co-operative system which is rapidly developing itself in this country. Mr. Cameron inaugurated the plan on the 12th of July last, and thus far it has worked, admirably, giving the most perfect satisfaction to all concerned. The success which has attended it has been watched with great interest by other establishments, by which it will no doubt be adopted. The amount of capital invested in Messrs. Cameron's concern is about $300,000, and agencies are established in all parts of the United States and in the principal countries in Europe, and large stocks are on hand at the agencies with which to supply the wants of trade. The general features of the plan are as follows: The books are balanced on the 1st day of July each year. On the 15th day of July, 1870, will be distributed among the workmen then in their employ ten per cent of the net profits accruing from the business during the year ending July 1. These profits will be divided in proportion to the amount of wages received by each man during that period. To be the recipients of the dividends the employees are to perform the duties assigned to them in such manner as to warrant the employers in pursuing such a course. The act being entirely voluntary on the part of the employers, it conveys no right to the employees to such a distribution of profits, they being paid weekly wages, which are full compensation for services performed. Lazy persons have been pointed out and dismissed, and thus the interest of the hard-working men have been protected, and they will not be called upon at the end of the year to divide the fruits of their industry with sluggards.

A visit to the extensive workshops of the establishment shows at a glance how well the system works. The men look cheerful, are strictly attentive to their various jobs, and no idlers or skulkers are to be seen. During the busy season the men worked fourteen hours a day, and completed work which had to be delivered at a specified time. A strike is an unheard of thing. Professional "tramps" do not receive encouragement, and while the concern reaps a rich harvest, the employees feel sure of steady employment, regulated by a committee of their own class, with the pleasing prospect of participating in the profits of a thriving business. Mr. Cameron is a young man, and one who has the good of the laboring class at heart, and if the men prove faithful to their own interests, it is probable that while benefitting themselves directly, they will produce a change in the working of other establishments which will in time be of great and lasting benefit to all craftsmen.

GOULD AND FISK BEFORE THE COMMITTEE ON THE GOLD CONSPIRACY.

[From the St. Louis Democrat, Jan. 23.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—There is a deal of talk here about Fisk and Gould and the evidence they gave on Saturday in the gold conspiracy investigation. Gould was before Garfield's Committee four hours, and Fisk entertained for two hours in a manner unparalleled. Gould does not say much about his testimony, but in less than three hours after he left the Capital, Fisk had told his story to a room full of reporters. It has been written out to-day from short hand notes, and is racy reading. It doesn't seem worth telegraphing, however, for there is nothing in it beyond what was printed in New York last fall by Fisk himself, or with his permission.

GOULD AND FISK CONTRASTED.

The two men are the opposite of each other almost as unlike as two men can be. Gould is quiet in manner and reticent in speech, while Fisk is noisy and pushing, and garrulous to the last degree. Gould gives his evidence with caution and precision; Fisk was profane, oratorical, dramatic and bifalutin. Gould deliberated on every answer he made, and went no further than necessity required. Fisk poured out a torrent of words, and was no more to be checked than Niagara in its flow. Gould gave no extraneous information, but Fisk continually slopped over. There was business in the room while Gould sat in the witness chair; the two hours of Fisk was a broad farce or a roaring comedy from end to end.

FISK'S STORY.

His story is racy to read, but the flavor of his action and gesticulation is wanting. He was very anxious to be present during the examination of Gould, but the committee, of course, did not allow this. "I never have been separated from Gould before," he exclaimed in a high tragic manner to the committee. When Gould reads the story told by his adjutant there is a chance for an explosion.

FISK AND GOULD THEORY.

These two worthies had a theory, or thought they had, and it was that wheat coming from the West over their line of course ought to go abroad, but couldn't do so if gold was low. They profess to believe that they acted as public benefactors in throwing up the price.

HOW THEY TRIED TO PUMP THE PRESIDENT.

They tried every possible way to get the President to commit himself to, or at least to act on their theory. They report scraps of chance conversation with him, and tell what means they used to reach him through friends and relatives.

CORBIN PHOTOGRAPHED.

Fisk speaks of Corbin as an old thief and photographs his character in a sentence. "When he reaches his hand to the shelf he cleans off everything there is on it."

THE PRESIDENT NOT CONNECTED WITH THE CONSPIRACY.

Corbin made them believe, or at least they say he made them believe, that he spoke for the President, but Gould, in reply to a direct question, now answers that he does not know a thing in any way whatever connecting the President or any member of his family with the conspiracy.

FISK'S STYLE.

Fisk's style can be seen in one of his answers. When asked what became of a certain twenty-five thousand dollars placed to Mrs. Grant's credit, he replied, "It's gone where the woodbine twineth." He was Bombastes Furioso from beginning to end, and kept the Committee in a fever of suppressed laughter. They began on Gould with a large number of carefully prepared questions. With Fisk they could do nothing but allow him to go on in his own way and manner till he got through. Mr. Gould gave them some information out of which they hope to make points against other members of the ring.

Fisk could not speak of "poor Speyers" as a Dutch Jew or a German Jew, but staggered the committee by calling him "that Saxonian Roman of the coming band." Gould made no pretense, and attracted no attention. Fisk was gorgeous with his striped pantaloons, brown velvet coat, a square yard of shirtbosom, half a rod of gold chain, a diamond, large as a walnut, and a necktie of the latest and loudest swell pattern. Both of them went back to New York last evening.

SALE OF THE SEATTLE COAL MINE—THE LEWIS COUNTY LAND TROUBLE—BARK OSMYN

[From the Olympia Age, Feb 5]

On Tuesday last the papers were executed transferring the ownership of the coal mines in the region back of Seattle from the 'Lake Washington Coal Company' to that of the Seattle Coal Company. The lands sold contain the mines which have been worked for some three years past on a small scale by the first named Company who for lack of necessary capital, have been unable to do anything more than to get out sufficient coal to supply the home demand, and to demonstrate the superiority of their coal over any that has yet been found on the coast This superiority has been proved by analytical tests and actual use The gentlemen who are the largest shareholders in the new Company are mainly new comers to Seattle—where all the stock is owned and which will be the headquarters of the Company—and have sufficient capital at their disposal to get the mines in good running order and in such a shape that large profits must soon accrue. The "Seattle Coal Company filed articles of incorporation with the Territorial Secretary this week The price of their purchase was $25,000 coin

A disturbance occurred a few days ago in Lewis county, between Horace Howe and George Roberts that has been reported as more Vigilance outrages, but which it appears from a letter in the daily Tribune of the 2d inst, was only between the above named parties The cause dates back to a title in a certain land claim, now held by Howe, under a decree of the District Court. Mr Howe was in a field on this claim pulling turnips when Roberts came into the field threatening to whip him The former was armed and warned him off Roberts left but shortly returned and fired four shots at Howe from a pistol, but with no injury He then ran off threatening to return with a rifle but did not do it

What is the number of board feet in a telegraph pole, the ends of which are unequal squares and the taper regular The height (length, better) 24 ft, larger end 8x8, smaller 4x4 The principles employed in the following solution are demonstrated in Book V Sec II Davies' Mensuration, and in Prop 18, Book VII Davies' Legendre

$$\begin{array}{lll} & 8\text{x}8{-}64 & \\ & 4\text{x}4{-}16 & \\ (16\text{x}64)^{1/2}{-}8\text{x}4{-}32 & & 112\text{x}8\text{x}12 \\ & \overline{112} & \overline{144}\ {-}74\tfrac{2}{3} \end{array}$$

8 is ⅓ the length Divide by 144 to reduce the square inches to square feet Every cubic foot contains 12 ft of board measure.

OREGON PRODUCE.—By the boats from the upper Wallamet, the following articles of Oregon produce were received at this place during the week ending yesterday Wheat, 15 485 bushels, flour, 4,924 sks, apples, 1,542 bxs, dried do, 122 bbls, bacon, 700 pkgs, barley, 311 sks, oats 225 bushels The large amount of wheat in proportion to other products, show that our people are beginning to realize that it is a safer export than flour It is said to keep with a great deal more certainty on long sea voyages The freights mentioned were mostly purchased prior to arrival, and considerable backwardness is now exhibited by buyers through fear of a permanent decline in the grain market

FREIGHT FROM NEW YORK.—The following price list of freights from New York to Portland by the Oregon Pioneer Shipping Line, is from J M Keeler's commission house in New York Freight 10 cts per foot over California 25, 30, 35 and 40 cts per foot, light medium and heavy weight, ¾ to 1 ct per pound hard lumber $40 to $45 per thousand, square and rough nails 75 cts per keg kerosene 80 cts per case, insurance 2½ to 3 per cent total loss 3 to 3½ per cent free of particular average 4½ to 5 per cent subject to average slow freight per steamer, $1 50 cts per foot 3 cts per pound to San Francisco Pacific rail 7 cts per pound 4½ to 7 cts as per class

MAP OF WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—Stevens Map of Washington Territory by counties, is now offered to the public It comprises the latest surveys and is gotten up in a very fine style, either in a convenient form for carrying about or mounted on rollers Mr S J McCormick, of this city has them for sale The price for the pocket edition is $4 mounted $12 50 It will doubtless be found very useful as a map of reference to those desiring information in regard to the various localities in our sister Territory

THE STARR SUIT.—The argument in the United States Circuit Court this morning, in the case of Newby vs O C R R Co, will be of interest to railroad men in Oregon.

THE THEATER.—The Love Chase a very pretty comedy, and a diverting afterpiece the Area Belle were put on the stage at Oro Fino Theater last night in very good style Mr and Mrs Bates doing the leading characters well and being fairly supported by Miss Mandeville Mrs Burt Mrs Cox and Messrs Nobles Vinson Thornton and others The audience was very agreeably entertained with the entire performance We call special attention of our readers to the programme offered this evening Dot, or the Cricket on the Hearth is a piece entirely new to the Portland people, and has met with great success in California, and the Eastern cities We shall expect to see a full house to night

NEW BOOKS.—The following new books have just been added to the Portland Library The Crust and the Cake by Garrett Man in Genesis and in Geology Lady Hunting in Portrayed Stephen Dane by Douglas The Three Bernices, or Ansermo of the Crag Cloud on the Heart by R s The Rector's Wife by the author of Margaret and the Bridesmaids Queens of Song by Clayton

OFFICERS CHOSEN.—At the meeting of the Board of Delegates of the Fire Department, held last night A B Hallock was chosen President F J F Albright Secretary and Al Zieber Treasurer A vote of thanks was tendered H B Boyd Esq ex President for the manner in which he had presided over the former deliberations of the Board

ENTERTAINMENT.—The ladies connected with the Unitarian Church propose giving an entertainment consisting of parlor readings music and social festivities, at the chapel of the society on next Tuesday evening The former occasion of the kind warrants us in saying that that in contemplation will be very interesting

MEETING OF GERMANS.—The German residents of the city will hold a meeting at the Council Chamber, on next Tuesday evening to take into consideration the establishment of a German public school in Portland The measure is an important one and the punctual attendance of all interested is solicited

ARRESTED.—A man who had become exceedingly boisterous on First street, last evening, was arrested and lodged in the city jail by officers Brannan and McCoy The fellow was warmly opposed to accepting the accommodations offered him, and gave the officers considerable trouble Cause—bad whisky

THE CHAMPION.—We saw a letter yesterday, just received from T C Quick Esq, dated at Tillamook, January 27 which stated the schooner Champion had arrived at that place safely discharged a portion of her cargo and had just left for Yaquina Bay. This news will allay all fears for her safety

SECOND SERMON.—The second of a series of sermons to young men will be preached at Trinity Church in this city on next Sunday evening, by Rev C R Bonnell of Salem The subject of the discourse will be the Scripture character of Absalom The young men of Portland are cordially invited

U S CIRCUIT COURT.—The United States Circuit Court, Hon Matthew P Deady, Judge, will meet at ten o'clock this morning, when the arguments pleas and demurrer to bill in the case of J B Newby vs Oregon Central railroad Company will be heard

COUNTY COURT.—The County Court convened yesterday morning, and adjourned until 10, A M to day

The Board of Commissioners will meet for the transaction of county business at one o'clock this afternoon.

TO ARRIVE.—The steamship Montana, from San Francisco, and the California, from Victoria, will probably arrive here to-night or to morrow.

CURRENT NOTES

The prospects in Mexico are anything but hopeful Revolution crowds on revolution. Treason, risings, robbery, kidnapping and the most lawless of crimes swell our budget of news from the City of Mexico The San Luis revolution is increasing, and many Federal generals have gone over to the insurgents In Puebla things look squally In many of the States there are the signs which precede an outbreak Unhappy country! When will these disturbances cease?

Senator Ferry's idea of discussing treaties in the open Senate is admirable. The people should be made aware of the arguments for and against annexation, so as to be able to form their own judgment and to exercise their sovereign authority in respect to such momentous transactions Under our free institutions we should not follow the secret and tortuous ways of despotisms There may be good reasons for secret sessions of the Senate in regard to the confirmation of appointments, but certainly none in respect to the ratification of treaties

Prince Murat, about to be tried for exercising the royal privilege of slapping a magistrate's face, was asked at a dinner party why he appeared so seldom in the Bois He replied, "My exchequer limits, for the present, the number of my stud to two horses, and His Majesty forbids my appearance in public short of four." "Then why doesn't his Majesty make up the deficiency?" asked one of the guests "Ah!" sighed the Prince, "he has often promised, but then he has a 'deficiency' of his own which needs making up a good deal more than mine"

Considerable amusement was afforded in the House at Washington, by a lapsus pluma in the heading of a bill introduced by Mr. Cox, for an eight-hour law On being read by its title it proved to be "a bill to make eight years a day's work," and on the second reading still "eight years," the Clerk stating that it was so written, and he had no authority to change it. At last the verbal change was made, and was read as "a bill to make eight days a day's work" After a herculean effort a proper title was attained, and the bill referred to its appropriate committee Whether, after the masterly speech of Senator Morrill, it has chance of passage is another question

The female suffrage movement in New York has not flourished with encouraging vigor The Workingwomen's Association, perverted to the ballot agitation, came to an untimely end—or rather a sudden end, for being an organized false pretense it did not die a day too soon An effort to establish an avowed Suffrage Association was not more successful, and now we find the Woman's Council whose managers solemnly promised that it should be devoted to practical purposes, busy in talking and resolving in favor of the right to vote without distinction of sex At the last meeting the principal speaker was a Miss Howard, who mournfully asserted that "the only pure love on earth was that of a mother for her child" The conclusion is a very painful one and we can only hope that Miss Howard may some day have reason to take a more cheerful view of life Indeed, there is ground for believing that Miss Howard looks forward to a brighter future, because she said that under the benign influence of unsexed suffrage not only "two thirds of the ill assorted marriages will be done away with," but women will "secure both money and influence and dictate terms to the men"

What the Miners say of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

During the season when the Gold Harvest is generally suspended and the reapers of the glittering crop seek the cities to enjoy themselves there is of course a good deal of conviviality among this enterprising and hard working class; but dram drinking is not carried to the excess it was some years ago This may fairly be attributed to the distaste engendered by the use of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS This famous stimulant is in universal favor with the miners They take it with them to the interior and use it regularly as a tonic beverage, but as a strength sustaining tonic and an antidote to the unhealthy influences to which they are exposed in the localities where they labor and on returning to the cities and towns, they find in its refreshing and invigorating properties the best safe guard not only against the diseases, but against the dissipation of crowded communities It is one of the peculiarities of the preparation that it is an antidote to inebriety Those who take it as an appetizer and invigorant, aver that they have no desire whatever for liquor of any description, and, whatever fanatics may think to the contrary, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is a powerful ally of the temperance cause It is because unmedicated alcohol weakens the stomach and nervous system by its reaction that it begets a craving for itself It excites, and when the excitement passes off debility ensues, and more fuel is needed to renew the artificial fire that has, so to speak, burnt itself out But the effect of the great vegetable tonic and alternative is to invigorate the system permanently and healthfully

What the Hon W T Ballou says about the King of Pain "

SAN FRANCISCO Dec 7 1869

Dr J J McBride—Having suffered with sciatic rheumatism some months, I was induced to use your King of Pain I take pleasure in recommending it to those afflicted with rheumatism I know of several cases of neuralgia that have been cured by using it

W T BALLOU of Elko Nevada

Card from Harbor Master

SAN FRANCISCO Dec 2 1869

To Dr McBride—This is to certify that I have been troubled with neuralgia in my right arm and hand for the past three months, and although I have had medical advice and tried a number of remedies none has relieved me until I tried Dr McBride's King of Pain which has done me more good than all the other remedies I have tried. DR. J. J. M'BRIDE,

TELLS YOUR DISEASE WITHOUT ASKING ANY QUESTIONS!

A CARD.

SAN FRANCISCO Oct 16 1869

DR McBRIDE—My Dear Sir For the last six or seven years I have been afflicted with rheumatic pains from my knees down embracing all the joints of ankle and toes These pains have come upon me periodically every year, about this season of the year My knees and ankles, and toe joints, and my wrists and finger joints would swell and leave me in the most agonizing pain known only to those who have suffered from this dread malady These pains would continue for a period of from three to four months every year, and they have been regular, unfailing annual visitors I have been accustomed to apply for relief to the best citizens of San Francisco and have not failed to use all the popular remedies known to the public I would sometimes receive temporary relief after long continued application but it would never fail to return in a few days with increased severity

About two weeks ago while my pains were upon me I saw you at the corner of one of our streets and heard what you said about your "King of Pain" I confess that I listened to you with deep distrust Indeed I may say that I did not believe your statements still I thought I "it's only a dollar, and I'll patronize the humbug one dollar's worth" I bought a bottle and tried it first on my knee, which was fearfully swollen and from which I suffered very severely The second night I tried it again, and my dear Doctor you can judge of my surprise, ecstacy and delight, altogether when I found on rising the second morning that my pains were entirely gone and the swelling entirely disappeared My knee joints were as supple as when I was young I actually danced with delight, much to the amusement of my friends who had been in the habit of regarding me as a decrepid old rheumatic It has now been two weeks and I have not felt the least symptom of return I believe I am cured and I feel so grateful to you that I offer you this statement, verified by my oath to be used by you in whatever way you may think proper and I feel it a duty to let others similarly afflicted know where they can find relief

I am yours, very truly, RAPHAEL LOOKAYSE

State of California city and county of San Francisco On this 16th day of October 1869 personally appeared before me a Justice of the Peace in and for the city and county of San Francisco aforesaid Raphael Lookayse known to me to be the person who signed the foregoing letter and who being by me duly sworn deposes and says the contents thereof are true

T W TALIAFERRO, Justice of the Peace

TO THE PUBLIC

Grateful for the eminent services of Dr J J McBride I cheerfully make a statement of the following facts For twelve months I had suffered from prostration of my nervous system resulting in partial paralysis and almost total loss of sight A score of physicians had abandoned my case as hopelessly incurable I had even heard my days numbered by doctors and friends In the agonies of my neuralgia pain I sought the great King of Pain Under its benign influence in one half hour I had obtained more medical aid than I had known for long weary months My sight was so much restored that I could read print although I needed a guide to find Dr McBride's office an hour before Before leaving him I had regained the use of my almost palsied limbs and seemingly my strength had returned while all those aches and pains my constant companions were dissipated and gone It is now ten days since I ordered [illegible] ment with Dr McBride and I can say enthusiastically that I am restored as I could not have expected to have been in so little time My eyesight is most perfectly regained my whole physical system restored and doubted health

My residence is in Reading [illegible] business at No 6 Cambridge street in this city where I will willingly vouch in person for the truth of the foregoing to any one interested

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER NOS 695 AND 697 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily increases The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice

After.

BY A. J. H. LINDSAY.

Swiftly, earnestly as I wrought,
More swiftly still the shuttle of thought,
With shadowy flitting flew between
Fancy's warp of golden sheen.

Under my fingers pansies grow,
In passionate beauty roses glow,
And lilies gleam, all white and cold,
'Mid ferns and mosses, green and gold.

But in my heart the shuttle weaves
A quaint device of faded leaves,
Strewing a ground all brown and bare
And flecked with sunlight here and there.

Flecked with the light of the sunset sun,
I sigh for the day so nearly done,
For the proud, bright light in its summer prime
Blighted and bare—ah, weary time!

Dead on the altar the fire divine—
Old as Time in this song of mine,
Of a passionate heart, grown calm and cold,
Its songs all sung—its story told!

The Bill to Admit Virginia.

The following is the bill to admit Virginia, as it passed the Senate, after amendment, and as it subsequently passed the House:

An act to admit the State of Virginia to a representation in the Congress of the United States.

WHEREAS, The people of Virginia have framed and adopted a Constitution of State government, which is Republican, and

WHEREAS, The Legislature of Virginia, elected under said Constitution, have ratified the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and

WHEREAS, The performance of these several acts in good faith, was a condition precedent to the representation of the State in Congress, therefore,

Be it enacted, &c. That the said State of Virginia is entitled to representation in the Congress of the United States, provided, that before any member of the Legislature of said State shall take or resume his seat, or any officer of said State shall enter upon the duties of his office he shall take and subscribe and file in the office of the Secretary of State of Virginia for permanent preservation, an oath in form as the following: "I, , do solemnly swear that I have never taken an oath, as a member of Congress or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof, so help me God." Or such person shall, in like manner, take, subscribe, and file the following: "I, , do solemnly swear that I have, by act of the Congress of the United States, been relieved from the disabilities imposed upon me by the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, so help me God;" which oath shall be taken before, and certified by any officer lawfully authorized to administer oaths; and any person who shall knowingly swear falsely in taking either of such oaths, shall be guilty of perjury, and shall be punished therefor by imprisonment, not less than one year and not more than ten years, and shall be fined not less than $1,000 and not more than $10,000, and in all trials for any violation of this act the certificate of taking of either said oaths, with proof of signature of either party accused, shall be taken and held as conclusive evidence that such oath was lawfully and regularly administered by competent authority, and provided further, that every such person who shall neglect, for a period of thirty days after the passage of act, to take, subscribe, and file such oath, as required, shall be deemed to all intents and purposes to have vacated his office; and provided, further, that the State of Virginia is admitted to representation in Congress upon the following fundamental condition:

That the Constitution of Virginia shall never be amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote, who are entitled to vote by the Constitution herein recognized, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonious at common law, whereof they shall have been duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said State; provided, that any alternation of said Constitution, proscriptive in its effects, may be made in regard to the time and place of residence of the voters; that it shall never be lawful for the same State to deprive any citizen of the United States, on account of his race, color, or previous condition of servitude, of the right to hold office under the Constitution and laws of said State, and upon any such ground to require of him any other qualification for office than such required of all other citizens; that the Constitution of Virginia shall never be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the school rights and privileges secured by the Constitution of said State.

HOW THEY CONDUCTED THE RECENT CANVASS AND ELECTION.

[From the Houston Union.]

Evidences of fraud and intimidation on the part of the Hamilton politicians in many counties in the late election, are accumulating. There are enough here now to justify the commanding general in throwing out a dozen counties which gave Hamilton majorities.

In Cameron county 160 wild Mexicans were naturalized and put through for Hamilton, notwithstanding the protests of the Republicans.

In Hardin county two Hamilton men on the board of registration turned the third man off, who was a Republican, and every vote but one was given to Hamilton.

In Johnson county, the weather being bad and no one coming to vote, the board, all Hamilton men, took a vote for each registered voter and put it in the box, excluding just enough to give the appearance of fairness.

The same little game was carried on in Hood county.

In Falls, Panola and Milam, the Hamiltonites took the colored men by the collar, and told them if they voted for Davis they would all be hung, and literally forced them to the polls and made them vote for Hamilton. This outrageous conduct was what caused the closing of the polls at Milam. But in the other counties, there was no one of sufficient nerve to stand up against the unreconstructed scoundrels who seemed determined, law or no law, to make Hamilton Governor.

In Navarro county, the board were threatened with death if they did not register certain disqualified rebels, and were compelled to flee for their lives. Yet we are told these sweet scented fellows must be allowed to vote yet. If the commanding general was to do his duty he would put both Milam and Navarro under a strong military government until the law-breaking gentry in them learned to behave themselves.

There are about thirty counties in the State where Republican voters were prevented from exercising the franchise in accordance with their inclinations. They were either driven from the polls or forced to vote for their enemies. Had this not been the case, General Davis' majority would have been 10,000 instead of 1,000.

HOW QUEEN VICTORIA LOOKS.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette furnishes the following results of an inspection of the British Queen:

Queen Victoria is short and stout—so stout, indeed, that fat would perhaps be a more correct term. Her face is full, round, very large and heavy, mouth large, and lips thin, but neither impressing you disagreeably; nose rather prominent, but symmetrical in shape, and terminating sharply, head of medium size, but looking somewhat disproportionate to her large face, more noticeable for breadth at the base than height, and flat or level on top; forehead straight and very finely developed; eyes, I think, blue; expression unassuming, kind, and motherly. Her hair is quite gray—therefore, I infer, all her own. She looked to me from 55 to 60, though her actual age is 50. Her complexion has the brightest scarlet hue, indicative of much dinner-wine drinking, which is said to be very regular with her, and some malicious people say she don't restrict herself to the milder stimulants.

The Tax on Farmers.

LETTER FROM COMMISSIONER DELANO.

[From the N. Y. Tribune, Jan. 24.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Commissioner Delano has addressed the following letter to an Internal Revenue officer in Ohio:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE, WASHINGTON, Jan. 10, 1870.

SIR: Complaints are made at this office that the Assistant Assessors in your district are giving too strict a construction to the law and the ruling under which a person who makes it his business to sell the products of his own farm from a stall or a stand is required to pay a special tax as a produce broker. It is enacted in paragraph 13 of section 79, act of June 30, 1864, that every person other than one having paid the special tax as a commercial broker or cattle broker, or wholesale or retail dealer or peddler, whose occupation it is to buy or sell agricultural or farm products, and whose annual sales do not exceed $10,000, shall be regarded as a produce broker.

In determining the liability of a farmer to the special tax of a produce broker, it is necessary to inquire whether it is his occupation to buy or sell agricultural or farm products, and also whether he is exempt from tax by any other provision of the statute. It is provided in section 74 of the act of June 30, 1864, as amended by the act of July 13, 1866, that no special tax shall be required of producers for selling their own products at the place of production, &c., and in paragraph 32, of section 79, that no man shall be required to pay a special tax for peddling the products of his own farm or garden. These are the only exemptions I find. If, as it has been claimed, it was not the intention of Congress to tax a farmer for selling the products of his own farm in any way whatever, it would seem strange why these special limited exemptions and exceptions should have been made in his favor. Why should he have been exempted from a non-existing tax? However desirous I may be to relieve farmers from tax for selling the products of their own farms, I am unable to find any legal authority to do it if it is their occupation to sell them, unless they fall within one of the exemptions or exceptions above mentioned. The ruling under which a person who makes it his occupation to sell the products of his own farm from a stall or stand is required to pay a special tax as a produce broker should be construed with the utmost liberality, giving him the benefit of all doubts respecting his liability.

It cannot ordinarily be said to be the occupation of a farmer to sell his products. It is his occupation to raise them. The selling is an incident to the production. It is only when he makes such selling his regular and constant business that he should be required to pay the tax. You will give your assistants the necessary instructions and will take special pains to cause a liberal construction of the law in this behalf toward producers.

Very respectfully,
C. DELANO, Commissioner.

A MANAGING MOTHER.—A wedding was "busted up" at St. Joseph, Mo., the other evening in the following way:

It seems that the "old lady's" advice had not been asked, although she seemed to tolerate the "billing and cooing" of the couple. The hour for the nuptials had been fixed at 8 o'clock. A little after evening the old lady entered her daughter's room, and discovering the latter in bridal attire, desired to know where she was going. "Going," said the innocent damsel in surprise, "why, going to be married!" "To be married?" was the startling rejoinder; "who told you that you might get married? Now, my young miss, I have been watching your actions for some time, and have made up my mind in regard to the matter. You are yet under my control, and I can assure you that no wedding goes off in this house to-night without my consent; so you may just as well lay off all those fine things you have on." There were earnest entreaties, and prayers, and tears shed profusely, but all in vain. The old lady was obdurate. She would listen to neither explanation nor entreaty, and finally concluded the matter by passing out of the room and locking the door, thus effectually interposing a physical barrier to the contemplated marriage. A few minutes later and there was a knock at the door. It was the intended bridegroom, arrayed in style the most approved. He was cooly informed that his service was not needed, and dismissed from the door in a perfect maze of bewilderment and sorrow. Then came another knock. It was the minister who was engaged to unite the parties. He was informed that it was all a mistake, and went away full as much overwhelmed with astonishment as the expected bridegroom. No guests had been invited, and no other knock at the door disturbed the stillness of the house. There was no wedding that night, but there was any amount of tears, and sighs, and sad regrets.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN KING.—We learn that Captain Fred. T. King died on board the steamship America, at Yokohama, Japan, December 30, 1869, aged forty-four. He was first officer of that vessel, and entered the navy from the merchant service at the commencement of the war. He was attached to several war steamers, and was on board the Mississippi when she was burned at Fort Hudson. He also commanded the Wando. Having resigned from the navy he entered the Pacific Mail Steamship service as first officer, and was attached to the Baltic and Arizona. He was also commander of the Ocean Queen and Rising Star, on the Aspinwall route.—Sacramento Union.

The Examiner of Banks and Insurance Companies for the State of Maine, in his annual report to the Governor, recommends the passage of an act requiring a tax of two per cent. on all premiums collected in that State by all insurance companies not organized under the laws of that State.

The anomalous state of the money market on this coast is something unusual in the history of finances. Trade of all kinds is inanimate, and still there are large sums of money in the country, the aggregate being greater than at the same period for years past. We instance the following statement from San Francisco touching the condition of money matters there, and would say that much the same feeling exists here:

So long as the people were content to pay a higher rental on money for the purpose of speculating in real estate than manufacturers or business men could afford to pay, the managers of savings banks were justified in making their deposits earn as much as possible. But it has been a short-sighted policy to disturb regular business by absorbing the money necessary for its activity. It is only necessary to state, as a proof of the correctness of this view, that while every branch of trade has been extremely dull during the greater portion of the past year, the dividends of these banks have been very large, averaging nearly 11 per cent. for the year. Were these dividends distributed among the people of the State, the evils of the system would have been less severely felt. The largeness of these dividends induced Eastern and European capitalists to make large deposits in these banks, on which they have drawn the profits out of the State.

This has been one of the greatest instruments in depleting the State of its currency. It is not possible that any intelligent man of business believe that the whole of the $28,000,000 on deposit in these banks belongs to the working classes here. The fact that these deposits have increased during the past six months, when the greater portion of the working classes have been out of employment, is a clear proof to the contrary, when interest on money in England has been 1½@2½ per cent. per annum, and 3 and 4 per cent. in France. The savings banks offered great inducement to manufacturers in those countries to send goods to this coast, as the money for which they were sold, if left for a year in these banks, insured a profit on the venture. Manufacturing interests will always be dull, while such a high rental for capital is demanded, and importers will always reap a double profit on money.

In trade circles there is likewise some things that cannot be accounted for upon the usual principles which govern the direction of commerce, and many of those who view matters in the light of experience, attribute the general state of mercantile affairs to the system upon which business has been done on the coast, and say "it is bad management." The query very naturally arises, who has been to blame? That something has been wrong in the trade of this coast is indisputable, but to find out in what particular department the wrong has been is a task of no easy task, and he who would disclose the truth in this regard would be likely to call down the maledictions of some of those who have grown rich at the expense of the prosperity of the country, upon the exorbitant rates of interest and high rents, enormous charges for transportation and great profits in various branches of trade. Men who came to this country at an early day and found a place where fortunes were made in a few months and money doubled itself in the same length of time, cannot generally be satisfied with the slow profits in investments. The people, to a great extent, are not yet brought to consider the necessity of [illegible], but surer way of doing business in the East or older countries. But to this complexion they must come, and the sooner the better. Whatever necessity exists in New England or elsewhere for the exercise of economy, exists in Oregon. Our people must begin the practice of this virtue, and when we do business here in the way it is done elsewhere, we may expect to see the development of all our interests in a healthy and encouraging ratio.

During the period under review, business has been even more quiet than the previous week. Our produce market is more animated, perhaps than any other branch of trade, and though some demand for grain and flour for export exists, shippers are backward, anticipating a decline from the recent advices of dullness in the Eastern and European markets. Prices, however, remain as one week ago, for all our principal articles of export. Bacon of some grades, is a shade lower. Butter and eggs have declined to a remarkably low figure. Sugars and syrups weak and tending downward. Carmen Island and Sandymount salt have fallen, the first to $30 50, the latter to $30, while Ground Rock has advanced to $22 50. These changes are effected as the supply or demand increases or diminishes. Coal oil is again down to 60c for best brands.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE, NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE, G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY, JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER, ROB'T RAMSEY,
And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

Prepared by SMITH & ROACH,
Harrisburg, Oregon.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years standing, and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed in the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to his patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.
